

BOYCE WORTHLEY YOUNG ACHIEVER AWARD

This award honours one of the founding members of the College, Boyce Worthley, who was a senior physicist with the Anti-Cancer Foundation, Adelaide. He became the College's first Life Member.

This is awarded to a younger member of the College for a significant contribution to the profession of physical and engineering sciences in medicine, generally with several publications in refereed journals as a primary author.

Prize: EPSM conference registration, travel and accommodation (the following year).

Minimum Criteria:

- Associate Member of ACPSEM – financial member of 12 months standing
- Applicant to be within the first 15 years of their profession, or within 10 years of gaining professional certification
- Will have made a substantial contribution to the physical or engineering medical sciences, demonstrated by several publications as primary author in referred journals

Judging Criteria:

- The number of refereed publications, including those as first author
- Contribution to clinical practice
- Conference contributions and involvement
- Tertiary qualifications
- Teaching experience
- ACPSEM registration in one or more specialty

How to Apply

All fellows, members and associate members of the ACPSEM can nominate persons for this award.

Applicants to provide:

- Nominee details:
 - Full name, title and academic qualifications:
 - Position and place of work:
 - Thumbnail photograph
 - Contact (email(s) and mobile no.)
- Details of referred publications, or other evidence of professional/clinical contributions;
- Cover letter and CV as a single combined document. (Covering letter to refer to the above eligible and judging criteria);

Submit the above as attachments in an email to:

foundationawards@betterhealthcaretechnology.org

stating your name and name of this Award in the subject line.

Please refer to Foundation Awards section of BHT website for any updates to submission deadlines or application requirements.

Award Winner's Obligation

Successful award winner(s) will be contacted by the BHT Foundation. There is an expectation that upon acceptance of the winning prize, the award winner will commit to writing a website article/blog-post describing their EPSM conference experience for publication on www.betterhealthcaretechnology.org within 3 months after their attendance at EPSM as the Young Achiever prize winner. All appropriate copyright and IP acknowledgements will be provided to author for this required content contribution.

BOYCE WORTHLEY YOUNG ACHIEVER AWARD

Signed Application Statement

Name:

Title and academic qualifications:

Current position:

I declare that all information provided in my application for this award is true and accurate as at the time of writing to the best of my knowledge.

Signed:

Date:

Please attach this signed statement to the documents submitted.